AQUA NEW YORK

INTRODUCING AQUA

Two amazing cuisines, contemporary Japanese and Italian, served to your table as one fabulous experience.

Aqua New York brings dining on a grand scale. At our restaurant in the heart of Flatiron, just a stone's throw from Union Square you have a choice of two restaurants serving Japanese and Italian cuisine. Aqua New York has two separate restaurants – Aqua Roma and Aqua Kyoto – each a master of its own cuisine to bring our unique lifestyle dining concept to your table. Italian and Japanese cooking match perfectly because they both share the same culinary philosophy: using the freshest seasonal produce and preparing them simply to let their natural flavors shine.

CUISINE

Aqua Roma offers modern regional Italian dining, celebrating seasonal produce and bold, vibrant flavors thanks to a selection of ever-changing seasonal menus. These dishes are complemented by our sommeliers, who highlight a new generation of talented Italian winemakers sourced from artisanal family vineyards.

Step into Aqua Kyoto for a vibrant Tokyo-inspired dining experience, led by Executive Chef Mitsuru Hara. Embracing contemporary Japanese cuisine, the dishes are dedicated to quality and creativity, such as our signature delicate Crystal Sushi topped with crystal jelly infused with flavors such as sake, rose, or yuzu ponzu dashi.

Aqua Spirit bar is not just a spot for expertly crafted cocktails and an exceptional bar menu; it's where New Yorkers gather to experience what NYC does best - hip bars and renowned DJs. With arguably NYC's largest elliptical bar with dramatic rope art installations, this show-stopping space offers a unique, theatrical drinking experience in Flatiron.

Aqua New York offers a range of three private dining rooms. These spaces are ideal for both corporate and social occasions, offering settings perfectly suited for seated luncheons, elegant dinners, and sophisticated cocktail receptions.
